

10 FEB 1965

Honorable W. J. Raborn
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Raborn:

The Society for Personnel Administration presents the Warner W. Stockberger Achievement Award each year to a person in public or private life who is considered to have made an outstanding contribution toward the improvement of public personnel management at any level of government. This Award is given in honor of the late Warner W. Stockberger, a pioneer leader in Federal personnel administration.

Nominations for this Award are not limited to those directly engaged in planning or administering personnel programs. Past recipients have included a cabinet officer, educators, social scientists, and a legislator who had strong interest and influence in improving public personnel management.

The Award Committee is now soliciting nominations for the Stockberger Award for 1965. We will appreciate your submitting a candidate for our consideration. Further information concerning this Award is included in the attached announcement.

We hope you will give this matter careful attention and let us hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

C. F. Mullaly
Chairman, Stockberger
Award Committee
